

John C. Bovay
The John and Barbara Glynn Distinguished Visiting Professor of Accounting
Washington & Lee University
Lexington, Virginia
Holekamp 213
540-458-8611
bovayj@wlu.edu

Professor Bovay teaches three courses in federal taxation, covering taxation of business entities, individual income tax, tax policy, tax planning and current tax topics. He is also an initial core faculty member of the Law, Justice and Society minor and the faculty advisor to W&L's Beta Alpha Psi chapter.

In addition, Bovay is a shareholder in the Salter Feiber law firm in Gainesville, Florida.

His educational and professional background is highlighted below:

- Masters in Laws (LL.M.) in Taxation, University of Florida College of Law, 1988
- Juris Doctorate, University of Florida College of Law, with honors, 1982
- Bachelor of Science with Special Attainments in Commerce (Business Administration and Accounting), Washington & Lee University, cum laude, 1979
- Board Certified in Tax Law by the Florida Bar
- Board Certified in Wills, Trusts and Estates Law by the Florida Bar
- Recognized as a Florida Super Lawyer for Estates and Probate, 2007, 2011-2021, named a member of Florida Trend's Legal Elite 2015-2021, named to Best Lawyers in America in 2017-2021 and maintains an AV rating from Martindale-Hubbell
- Florida licensed CPA, inactive
- Trustee of the University of Florida Law Center Association, where he has taught Advising the Entrepreneur as an adjunct professor
- A founder, Trustee and Chair-elect of the Florida Tax Institute, an annual continuing education program focused on individual, business and transfer tax issues
- Former Trustee of the Washington and Lee University Alumni Board, W&L Class Agent since 1992, Past Chair of the Gainesville Alliance for Economic Development, Past President of the Gainesville Country Club and a former member of the Eighth Judicial Circuit Grievance Committee
- Recipient of the 2012 Legacy Award from the Gainesville Community Foundation
- Regular speaker at various estate planning events throughout Florida

